It Has Rained Music, Patriotism, Hospitality and Business.

More Yankee Doodle Humidity Than Crows in a Missouri Cornfield.

A Brogan That Will Stay Where It Has Been Planted.

TRUST THE APPROVAL TO THE MULTITUDE.

"It never rains but it pours" certainly expresses the gala condition which has existed in this city during the present week. It has rained music; it has rained patriotism; it has rained pyrotechnics; it has rained hospitality to the nation's chief, and it has rained business. There has been more Yankee Doodle humidity in the atmosphere this week in Kansas City than crows in a Missouri cornfield. It has been a most fitting introduction to an exposition which will enlarge our boundaries, swell our population and increase, multiply and diversify our industries until we shall become the great people that our conditions make it possible for us to become. We have imbibed the spirit of the week, and in a business way we have put our best brogan forward, and we intend that it shall stay where it has been planted. Months ago we anticipated the present, and we bought at home and abroad as never before, and hence it is that we now present the largest and grandest exhibit of fine Dry Goods ever seen in the West.

We have had the crowds by thousands—citizens and strangers—and we so shaped our business relations with them that we have the right to expect much of the future, and where the right exists you can turn to the approval of the multitude.

have prevailed here, and do now. We intend that the thousands of strangers now here shall leave this city with such impressions of us as will secure to us their future trade. Present profits would be too narrow a policy for us to entertain now, and hence there has never been such a time to secure goods here as now.

There are special prices in Dress Goods, Linens, Blankets and Carpets, and, in fact, throughout the house.

To-day we offer some very fine Blankets, and the reductions you can depend upon as given below:

VALUE.	REDUCED PRICE.
$12 50	$ 8 50
14 00	9 50
15 00	10 00
20 00	14 50
25 00	16 50
30 00	18 50
35 00	21 00
57 00	25 00
75 00	35 00

Such large reductions have been made because there is not a sufficient demand for such expensive qualities. Cost was disregarded in the wonderful mark down, and a quick selling price established. In fancy Blankets we have several lines—a few pairs only of a kind—which we offer at

HALF PRICE.

There are some special bargains this week in Ladies' Underwear and Hosiery. A new effect in Silk-and-Wool Underwear. The texture and shades are delicate, refined and elegant.

The Cloak and Suit Department attracts the crowd. You are liable to drop in anywhere and buy a spool of cotton, but when you wish to buy a Wrap or a Suit you come here, and you subserve your interests by doing so.

Trustee's Sale.
Whereas, Andrew Downing and Martha J. Downing, his wife, and Charles A. Whitaker and Stella E. Whitaker, his wife, by their certain deed of trust, bearing date of July 1, 1886, and recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of Jackson county, Missouri, at Kansas City, in book B, number 191, at page 88, did convey to the undersigned trustee the following described real estate, situate, being and being in the city of Jackson, in the state of Missouri, to wit: All of lot numbered twenty-five (25), in the second (2d) block of the subdivision of the city of Jackson, Missouri, which said lot is marked and designated on the plat of said subdivision made for value received by the said Andrew Downing, Martha J. Downing, Charles A. Whitaker and Stella E. Whitaker, dated at Kansas City, Mo., July 1, 1886, payable one year after date to the order of J. W. Lawrence for the sum of $15,000, and of J. W. Lawrence for the sum of $15,000, with interest at eight per cent per annum from date, which note is described in said deed of trust; and whereas the said note is now due and unpaid, and default has been made in the payment thereof.

Now, therefore, public notice is hereby given that the undersigned trustee will, at the request of the said holder of said note and by virtue of the power in me vested by the terms of said deed of trust, proceed to sell the real estate herein before described at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash at the front door of the court house, at the southeast corner of Fourth and Main streets, in the city of Jackson, in Jackson county, Missouri, on Thursday, the twentieth day of October, A. D., 1887, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, for the purpose of paying said note and interest thereon, and the costs of executing this trust.

ED. L. SCARLETT, Trustee.
Kansas City, Mo., September 17, 1887.

Trustee's Sale.
Whereas, Fannie Peery, an unmarried person, by her deed of trust, dated December 1, 1884, and recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds in and for Jackson county, at Kansas City, Missouri, in book B, number 125, conveyed to the undersigned trustee, all her right, title and interest in and to the following described real estate situate in Jackson county, Missouri, to-wit: A certain lot of the west end of the 4th of Cass and 5th of Main streets, in the city of Jackson, Missouri, together with all buildings and improvements thereon, which said deed of trust was made for the purpose of securing to James J. Peery, the payment of a certain promissory note described therein, and whereas, default has been made in the payment of said note, and by the terms of said deed of trust all of said lot and improvements thereon have become due and payable and will remain due and unpaid, now therefore, at the request of the said holder of said note and by the terms of said deed of trust, the undersigned trustee will, at the request of the said holder of said note, proceed to sell the above described real estate at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash at the front door of the court house, northeast corner of Second and Main streets, in the city of Jackson, Missouri, on Thursday, the twentieth day of October, A. D., 1887, for the purpose of paying said note and interest thereon, and the costs of executing this trust.

ROBERT L. YEAGER, Trustee.

Notice to Contractors for Paving.
CITY ENGINEER'S OFFICE.
INDUSTRIAL, Mo., Oct. 6, 1887.
Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned at his office until 12 o'clock noon of October 17, 1887, at which time and place bids will be opened for furnishing and laying brick and all the necessary excavating and work for completing the following city street, to-wit: Excavating and laying that portion of Main, Maple avenue, Liberty and Lexington streets that adjoin the court house square.

Said paving shall be cedar blocks, six inches long and resting on a seven inch concrete foundation. A board 7,040 square yards of paving will be required. The bids shall be per square yard of pavement complete, and each street will require a separate bid. Plans and specifications may be seen, and all information relative to the work obtained at this office. Payment for the work to be made from the fund derived from the collection of special tax bills.

No proposal from any contractor in default with the city on any previous contract will be considered. No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by a bond of $200 to be approved by the committee on public improvements, conditioned that the bidder will enter into contract with the city to complete the work within the time specified in the specifications, and to furnish satisfactory security for the speedy completion of the work.

The sign, reserved to reject any or all bids if deemed too high.
JOHN J. O'BRIEN, City Engineer.

Notice of Final Settlement.
In the matter of the estate of John J. O'Brien, deceased, notice is hereby given that the undersigned, public administrator of Jackson county, Missouri, has made final settlement of said estate at the court room of Jackson county, Missouri, on the twenty-first day of September, A. D., 1887.

Dated, this 21st day of September, 1887.
HARMO BELL, Public administrator of Jackson county, State of Missouri, and as such in charge of the estate of John J. O'Brien, deceased.
